

The ACE website is being redesigned and your input is needed! The goals of a new website design are to have an easy to follow, useful tool in French, English and Spanish for members and others to find information about ACE as well as other cooperative educational opportunities and resources.

Please answer the following questions. There is an open comment section at the end of the survey – your comments and/or critiques are welcome.

Thank you for taking the time to help improve our site.

1. Would you be interested in online discussions to comment on cooperative issues? Yes No
2. Do you prefer the website as the main form of communication? (As opposed to post) Yes No
3. In general, what is missing in the cyber world for co-op education?

4. What sites (general or specific) would you like to see linked to the ACE site?

5. Which websites do you think ACE should model? (you do not need to know the site, just the name of the organization)

6. What unique need should the ACE website fill to be of service to you?
