

ACE INSTITUTE 2011 EVALUATION AND COMMENTS

Once completed, please return this form to Institute registration staff or email/mail to:

ACE INSTITUTE
 c/o ACE
 29630 — 109th Avenue N.
 Hanover, MN 55341
 pike@ace.coop

How well did the ACE Institute meet your expectations?
 Your responses will allow ACE to better meet your needs.

Please mark your responses for formal presentations as follows:
 EXCELLENT = 5, VERY GOOD = 4, GOOD = 3, FAIR = 2, POOR = 1

	FORMAL PRESENTATIONS	CONTENT	APPLICABILITY TO YOUR WORK
WEDNESDAY • JULY 27	KEYNOTE: Christopher Kopka , vice president of Thrivent Financial for Lutherans — From Fortune Cookies to Fortune 500
	EMERGING PROGRAMS IN UNIVERSITIES Monica Adeler, University of Winnipeg Greg McKee, North Dakota State University
	TAKING EDUCATION OUTSIDE THE CLASSROOM Richard Fortier, Desjardins Group - teaching the co-op difference Colette Lebel, La Coop fédérée - using co-op learning in groups José Julián Ramírez Ruiz, Liga de Cooperativas de Puerto Rico - media helps reach members
THURSDAY • JULY 28	ENVISION A HUMANIZED ECONOMY Erik Olin Wright, University of Wisconsin - workers cooperatives' transformative potential John Restakis, British Columbia Co-operative Association - Italian co-op leadership
	REDISCOVERING FOOD Yoni Landau, CoFed - campuses and co-op movement Cindy Coker, SEED - Diversity Food Services model
	MULTI-STAKEHOLDERS REDEFINE SUSTAINABLE BUSINESS AND SERVICE Margaret Lund - A Multi-Stakeholder Cooperatives Manual Jean-Pierre Girard - Quebec's multi-stakeholder cooperatives
FRIDAY • JULY 29	CREATING AND MAINTAINING SOCIAL MOVEMENTS Sherida Ryan, University of Toronto — Social media in the co-op movement
	INVESTING IN CO-OPS AND THE SOCIAL ECONOMY Vera Goussaert, Manitoba Cooperative Association — Manitoba's new tax credit for cooperatives Cherie Beninger, The Co-operators Group Ltd. — The Co-operators Foundation™ Roy Messing, Ohio Employee Ownership Center — Three key activities of the center
	COOPERATIVE ENTERPRISES BUILD A BETTER WORLD Tanya Gracie, Canadian Co-operative Association and Eric DeLuca, National Cooperative Business Association — Planning a legacy of education
	BONUS SESSION: Roy Messing , OEOC — helping private businesses convert to collectives

Add your comments on presentations.

How were our Social, Mobile Learning and Open Mic Sessions? Please choose one answer for each event.

SOCIAL/MOBILE LEARNING	EXCELLENT	VERY GOOD	GOOD	FAIR	POOR
Welcome Reception
ACE Banquet and Awards Night
ACE Silent Auction
Mobile Learning Session, Tour A — Assiniboine Credit Union, Village Canadien Co-op (housing), The Mondragon Bookstore & Coffeehouse / Natural Cycle Worker Co-Op Ltd/ and the Old Market Autonomous Zone
Mobile Learning Session, Tour B — Neechi Foods Co-Op Ltd, Arctic Co-operatives Limited, NorWest Co-op Community Health Centre
Open Mic Sessions (lunchtime updates on programs, research, etc.)

Any Additional Comments regarding the ACE Institute Activities?

What host locations would you recommend for future Institutes? Why?

How was the organization of the Institute? Please choose one answer for each area.

LOGISTICS	EXCELLENT	VERY GOOD	GOOD	FAIR	POOR
Networking Opportunities
Interpretation Services
Length of the Institute
Accommodation
Meeting Facilities
Location (Winnipeg)

1. Based on my experience, I would attend another ACE Institute. Yes No

2. Based on my experience, I would recommend attending the ACE Institute. Yes No

Additional comments on the ORGANIZATION of the ACE Institute.